

Almondvale hosted Educational Lamb Industry Field Day

Friday August 26th - 11am - 4pm

“WHERE TO FROM HERE?”

Speakers

- Paul Routley, Almondvale

“Welcome”

“Where to from here for Almondvale Bond & White Suffolk studs?”

- Rob O’Dwyer, Landmark Animal Production Specialist

“Ram Fertility and Management”

- Ian Gilmore, Tattykeel White Suffolk stud

“The importance of using relevant genetics to enhance your flock”

Lunch 12:30pm to 1:30pm

- Peter Gordon, Pfizer Animal Health, Southern NSW/Riverina
“Johnes, the MAP program & general Animal health issues”

- Trent Gooden, Almondvale client

“Using Almondvale genetics in our breeding program”

Afternoon Tea: 3pm

- Almondvale will have a display of both their Bonds & White Suffolks incl. new $14,000 sire ‘Breaker’.
- Agricultural industry company reps will also be in attendance with displays including a working demonstration of the Gallagher sheep handling unit, and the newly installed Combi-Clamp sheep handling unit.
Come along, listen and learn.
- There will also be lucky door prizes, ram vouchers and product give-aways

For more details contact:

Paul Routley (02) 6927 1465 or Peter Routley (02) 6920 4465

or check website: www.almondvale.com.au